Film Premier

You are cordially invited to the film screening of:

Kiaho': Transformation of Agave to Kia-ho

SRPMIC member ROYCE MANUEL is featured in a short clip documentary through the National Museum of American Indians (NMAI)- Smithsonian in coordination with SRPMIC.tv on his research the Kiaho (traditional burden basket) to life. The film documents Mr. Manuel's journey and the personal stories of the students who participated in the workshops: Gabriel 'Joe'Martinez, Juanita Homer, Zelda Reed, Shannon Rivers and Leslie Xavier. Mr Manuel is a NMAI Artist Leadership Program participant

Date: Thursday September 29, 2011
Time: 8:00pm (film length- 13:21)
Location: Two Waters Council Chambers
10,005 E. Osborn Scottsdale, AZ 85256
Artist Q&A following the film presentation

Held in conjunction with the Native American Days Celebration at Two Waters September 27-29, 2011. Please join us from 5pm-8pm for a traditional meal, O'odham/Piipaash social dancing, cumbia contest and Native American artist market.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN

©2011 National Museum of the American Indian

For more information, contact
CRO Events 480-362-2719