Miss Indian Arizona
2012-2013 Participant

Devanie Selma Duwyenie

Representing the Salt River
Pima-Maricopa Indian Community

Devanie is the eighteen year old daughter of Stephanie Kaye Manning and Donovan Mario Duwyenie. She is a member of the Salt River-Pima Maricopa Indian Community. She has served as the Young River People's Council President and Miss Salt River 2011-2012.

Devanie is a recent graduate of Mountain View High School. She is currently in her first year at Scottsdale Community College (SCC) where she plans to earn an Associate's Degree in Political Science

Devanie has been involved with traditional dancing since she was young girl. She enjoys learning traditional songs and the stories behind the songs. She also enjoys cultural dances and spending time with her family. She recently served as an Intern with the Salt River Environmental Protection and Natural Resources Division, where she helped with Earth Day. Devanie is currently working in the Prosecutors Office while attending SCC.

If selected as Miss Indian Arizona, Devanie will promote youth outreach and leadership. Devanie believes that it is important for all young people to have a voice in today's society. She says that she wants "to help other youth to become a part of this powerful movement."
