

2013 MUL.CHU.THA VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

The Tribal Recreation and Wellness Center Program is currently recruiting volunteers for the 2013 Mul.Chu.Thu Fair and Rodeo. Below is a list of volunteer program opportunities:

Mul-Chu-Tha Senior Ambassador

Looking for Seniors 55 and older to serve as a Mul.Chu.Thu Fair and Rodeo Ambassadors. A MCT Ambassador supports the Mul.Chu.Thu Fair and Rodeo experience through exceptional leadership and hospitality.

Mul-Chu-Tha Volunteer

Looking for individual, group, or departmental volunteers to serve as a Mul.Chu.Thu Volunteer. Interested groups or candidates must be willing to commit their time and talents in connection with various Mul.Chu.Thu Fair and Rodeo events including, but not limited to, pre-event planning and day-of help.

Volunteer commitments and requirements vary depending upon the specific assignment. Below is an overview of what is required before an individual is eligible to participate in the Mul.Chu.Thu Fair and Rodeo Volunteer Program:

- Register online through Mul-Chu-Thu website www.mul-chu-thu.com or pick up a volunteer application packet the Tribal Recreation office, Service Centers, Fair office, or Wellness Center.
- Pass a background check (Volunteers working directly with youth or seniors must successfully pass a background check)
- Sign the Mul.Chu.Thu Volunteer Waiver and Release of Liability form.