

“Best of the American Indian Film Festival”

The American Indian Film Institute (www.aifi.com) will bring its celebrated “Best of the American Indian Film Festival,” presented and hosted by the Ak-Chin Indian Community, March 28-30, 2013, to the UltraStar Multi-tainment Center, 16000 Maricopa Rd., Maricopa, Ariz. TICKETS ARE $9/$7 AT THE DOOR. The public is invited to enjoy this three-day showcase of award-winning features, animation, short films, public-service, and music videos from last November’s 37th annual American Indian Film Festival in San Francisco.

“The American Indian Film Institute is proud to collaborate with the Ak-Chin Indian Community, and to screen a cross-section of our best films from the 37th annual American Indian Film Festival,” said AIFI founder-president Michael Smith (Dakota Sioux). “We cordially invite the Ak-Chin, Maricopa and Phoenix Region communities to attend and view these films, meet the actors, and enjoy the inherent cultural exchange and friendship that’s so much a part of our festival, and the Native filmmaking community.”

Thursday, March 28, 5:30 – 10 p.m.

Welcome Remarks by AIFI President Michael Smith and Chairman Louis J. Manuel, Jr.
