

A DESTINATION CELEBRATION

The Talking Stick Festival is a Destination Celebration at Talking Stick, a Cultural and Entertainment Destination. The Festival, designed for all ages, takes place January 22 to 24, 2015.

Experience all the excitement of this unique cultural and entertainment corridor located on the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community at Pima 101 Freeway between Chaparral and Via De Ventura roads. During the 3-day festival, we invite you to shop, dine, stay, play and be amazed by everything you can do. Get special offers and discounts for several attractions, retailers and restaurants. Enjoy authentic cultural programming featuring Native American dancers, artists, demonstrators, Chalk Art and indigenous film screenings, take a sculpture tour with a Community-based artist and let the children enjoy hands-on arts and crafts in our Kids Craft Zone area. Come see what everyone is talking about!

Thank you to our Talking Stick Cultural & Entertainment Destination Partners for their support of the Talking Stick Festival 2015.

MEET & GREET THE ACTORS INTRODUCING THEIR FILMS, INCLUDING:

Cara Gee, Empire of Dirt and Roseanne Supernault, Rhymes for Young Ghouls and Maina
Meet Travis Holt Hamilton, Writer/Director of Legends from the Sky, Friday, Jan., 23rd, 6pm in theatres January 30, 2015.
