Vendor Agreement:

- Vendor agrees to honor his/her commitment to be present to display their artwork at the Circle of Art & Culture which is a part of WailaFest 2015. The location is at the Rawhide Western Town & Steakhouse Sonoran Lawn area, just west of Frontier Hall. This event is being held on Saturday, November 28, 2015. You can begin setup at 10:30 am.
- Vendor understands that they are to provide their own booth equipment such as tables, chairs, and a 10 x 10 canopy if needed.
- Vendor accepts total responsibility for his/her booth and its safety in relation to fire, theft, accident, or other destructive causes, and injury to the public which might occur within the confines of the vendor's booth and area or injury to the vendor or his/her employees or agents while on event grounds.
- The Waila Festival Planning Committee, Waila Festival, Inc., and Rawhide Staff assumes no responsibility for any property stored on premises.
- Should acts of God, including weather or any other cause not within the control of the event organizers make it impossible for the event to be held; then the event, and its representatives and employees are held harmless from any and all claims, which may arise as a result thereof. In no event shall the Waila Festival Planning Committee, Waila Festival, Inc. or Rawhide Staff be held liable for loss of business, or any other damages to the vendor through event cancellation for such cause.
- The Waila Festival Planning Committee, Waila Festival, Inc. and Rawhide Staff shall have full power in interpretation and enforcement of all terms and rules contained herein and such further rules and regulations as it shall consider necessary for the proper conduct of the event.
- NO ILLEGAL DRUGS, ALCOHOL, AND FIREARMS ON THE PREMISES.

I agree to comply with all rules, regulations, and agreements outlined within the application. The Waila Festival Planning Committee, Waila Festival, Inc., Rawhide Staff, and the Gila River Indian Community will not be held liable or responsible for bodily injury, theft, or damages incurred prior, during, or after the event.
