Veterans Representative's Thoughts

by Amanda White

As we enter the New Year of 2023, I'd like to take a moment to reflect on the experiences and contributions of our Warriors Veterans. I'm humbled and inspired by their courage, sacrifice, and service to our country and to this community. As we look to the future, I hope to continue to recognize and honor these brave individuals and their families. May we all strive to be kind, compassionate, and generous to one another—especially those who have dedicated their lives to protecting us. Wishing everyone a peaceful and prosperous New Year!
