COURT OF APPEALS

In the Matter of:

CHRISTOPHER BLACKMOUNTAIN
Appellant,

-v-

SALT RIVER PIMA MARICOPA
INDIAN COMMUNITY
Appellee,

Case No.: APCR-15-0002

Trial Court No: T-14-0411

ORDER

Before: Justice Hosay, Justice Morris and Justice Bender, Appellate Court Justices of the Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community Court.

Order by Justice Hosay with Justice Morris concurring.

For the reasons that follow, we dismiss this Appeal.

On November 24, 2014, Appellant, Christopher Blackmountain, by and through his legal counsel, William Wallace, filed a Notice of Appeal from a final amended order dated November 6, 2014 by Honorable Louis Araneta.

Pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Appellate Procedure, a notice of appeal must be filed no later than fourteen (14) calendar days from the entry of an adverse ruling. Failure of a party to timely file a notice of appeal shall result in a dismissal of the appeal. See, Rule 3 of the Criminal Appellate Procedure. Consequently, Appellant's notice of appeal was due on or before November 21, 2014. The Court finds that the appeal was untimely filed. In addition, to date, no brief has been filed with the Court and the Appellant has not made an effort to secure the trial record. See, Id. at Rule 5 and Rule 12. In light of these facts and circumstances, there is no evidence the Appellant intended to proceed with his appeal.

IT IS ORDERED: Dismissed.
