And Plaintiff alleges the following:

1. The Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Court has jurisdiction to hear and decide this case because: (check all boxes that are true.)

- ☐ Defendant is a member of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (SRP-MIC);
- ☐ Defendant is domiciled or residing within the SRP-MIC;
- ☐ Defendant caused an event to occur within the SRP-MIC out of which the claim that is the subject matter of the complaint arose;
- ☐ Counter-defendant filed an action in SRP-MIC court against the counterclaimant arising out of the subject matter of such action, and which counterclaim might be brought under the federal rules of civil procedure;
- ☐ Defendant is a real party in interest to a lease of land and/or improvements within the SRP-MIC and then as to matters involving such leasehold interests; or
- ☐ Defendant is a real party in interest regarding the ownership of land and/or improvements located within the SRP-MIC boundaries and sought to be acquired pursuant to the powers of eminent domain.

2. Statement of claim: Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State the facts showing that you are entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how the defendant was involved and what the defendant did that caused you harm, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed. Do not write on back of the complaint.

3. Relief Requested: State briefly and exactly what damages or other relief you are asking the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Requested relief may include an award for money damages, surrender of certain property, and/or the performance of some act for the benefit of the injured party. Attach additional pages if needed. Do not write on back of the complaint.

I request the Court to grant the relief requested and other relief that the Court deems just and proper.

I state to the Court, under penalty of perjury, that I have read this complaint and all the statements in the complaint are true and correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.
